Practice Worksheet II

1. By the time the guests arrived, the chef _____ (prepare) all the dishes.

2. She _____ (work) at the organisation for five years when she decided to pursue higher studies.

3. The committee _____ (meet) tomorrow to discuss the revised proposal.

4. I _____ (visit) the museum several times, but I have never seen this exhibition.

5. When the lecture began, some students _____ already _____ (take) their seats.

6. Change the following sentence into the Present Perfect Continuous Tense: They practise public speaking every evening.

7. Change the following sentence into the Past Perfect Tense: The researcher submitted the report before the deadline ended.

8. Identify the tense of the verb: The students had been discussing the issue for nearly an hour.

9. Correct the tense error: I am understanding the point you are trying to make.

10. Rewrite the sentence using the Simple Past Tense: The department has organised several workshops this semester.

11. Neither the coordinator nor the faculty members _____ willing to postpone the session. (was / were)

12. The collection of reference books _____ been moved to the new library. (has / have)

13. Each of the speakers _____ required to submit a brief profile. (was / were)

14. The information provided by the applicants _____ incomplete. (was / were)

15. A number of participants _____ requested additional practice material. (has / have)

16. The number of applications received this year _____ increased considerably. (has / have)

17. Either the department head or the senior faculty members _____ responsible for approving the schedule. (is / are)

18. Economics _____ often considered a challenging subject by students. (is / are)

Correct the following sentences.

19. The set of instructions were distributed to all the participants.

20. Every student in the two sections have submitted the assignment.

Fill in the blanks with suitable prepositions.

21. The participants were divided _____ three smaller groups for the activity.

22. She has been associated with the centre _____ 2024.

23. The presentation is scheduled _____ Friday afternoon.

24. The students were asked to focus _____ the main argument of the passage.

25. He is capable _____ handling difficult questions with confidence.

26. The faculty member congratulated the students _____ their excellent performance.

27. The candidates were advised to refrain _____ making unnecessary remarks during the interview.

28. She is committed _____ improving her academic writing skills.

Identify and correct the preposition error.

29. The speaker emphasised on the importance of active listening.

30. She is more experienced than her colleague in dealing with placement interviews.