Practice Worksheet II

1. By the time the external examiner arrived, the candidates _____(wait) for nearly an hour.

2. The research team _____(collect) data for several months before it published its findings.

3. I _____(not / see) the revised timetable yet, although it was circulated yesterday.

4. By this time next year, she _____(complete) her master's degree.

5. When I entered the laboratory, the students _____already _____(conduct) the experiment. (Past Perfect Continuous)

6. Change the following sentence into the Past Perfect Continuous Tense: The researchers work on the project for six months before they submit the report.

7. Change the following sentence into the Future Perfect Tense: The university will complete the renovation before the new semester begins.

8. Identify the tense of the underlined verb: The committee has been reviewing the applications since Monday.

9. Correct the tense error: I am understanding the instructions now.

10. Rewrite the sentence using the Past Perfect Tense: The department has issued the final notice before the students arrived.

11. Choose the correct form: If the speaker _____(finishes / will finish) the presentation on time, we can begin the discussion.

12. By the time you reach the venue, the programme _____(begin / will have begun).

13. Neither the principal nor the senior faculty members _____willing to postpone the examination. (was / were)

14. The quality, as well as the variety, of these resources _____improved considerably. (has / have)

15. Each of the research proposals _____to be evaluated independently. (needs / need)

16. The committee members, along with the chairperson, _____expected to attend the meeting. (is / are)

17. A number of students _____requested an extension, but the number of requests _____ still manageable. (has / have; is / are)

18. The introduction of new teaching methods and digital resources _____transformed the classroom experience. (has / have)

19. Either the coordinator or the faculty members _____responsible for informing the students. (is / are)

20. More than one student _____expressed concern about the revised schedule. (has / have)

21. The list of books recommended by the professors _____available in the library. (is / are)

22. Neither the answers nor the explanation _____convincing. (was / were)

Correct the following sentences.

23. Every member of the faculty were asked to submit their feedback by Friday.

24. The results of the internal assessment indicates that several students needs additional practice.

Fill in the blanks with suitable prepositions.

25. The students were divided _____smaller groups for the activity.

26. She has been associated _____the department since 2024.

27. The professor insisted _____checking every reference before submission.

28. The workshop is scheduled _____10:30 a.m. on Thursday.

29. He has a strong aptitude _____analytical reasoning.

30. The students were cautioned _____relying entirely on memorised answers.

31. The new policy is applicable _____all students enrolled in the programme.

32. She succeeded _____persuading the committee to reconsider the proposal.

Identify and correct the preposition error.

33. The researcher is capable to analysing the data independently.

34. The students discussed about the implications of the findings.

35. He has been working in this project since three months.

36. The professor congratulated the students for their excellent performance in the presentation.